1. The meeting was called to order by Natalie Kalika at 7:11 PM.
2. Banquet

Natalie looked into several venues. The majority of venues were priced anywhere from $25.00 to $30.00 per person. Not much different than the Danish Canadian Club. Although parking would be better at most venues, the prices for dinner will have to be discussed further.
3. The smoking issue was discussed. Since January 1 is getting closer, the captains will have to talk to their teams as the evenings are getting longer with extended smoke breaks. Also, a time limit was suggested to be enforced for smoke breaks during the ICDL shoots.
4. The Turkey shoot is next on our list. The shoot is Saturday, December 1, registration is 9:30 – 10:00, darts fly at 10:30.
5. Lunch at the Sadie Hawkins ended up being chicken fingers or burgers. The league was charged $5.00 per person. It was suggested that we allow a

$3.00 credit for players for lunch. Or provide lunch ourselves, possibly cold cuts and buns. Annie Pitchford graciously offered to look after the food for the Turkey Shoot.

6. It was brought up that dart boards are not in great condition at some communities. Dustin from APRH Shockers said that the boards at Albert Park were replaced within the last year. Further discussion will be required.
7. Meeting adjourned at 7:39 PM.
